MAN HURLED TO DEATH FROM 125-FOOT CHIMNEY

Scaffold Breaks and Victim Takes Frightful Plunge, While Companion Saves Himself by Clinging to Rope.

Two men were at work on top of an snap the rope holding one end of the brick chimney 125 feet high in the narrow wooden scaffold parted. Bronx to-day when the scaffold upon which they stood suddenly collapsed.
One tumbled to the earth and broke every bone in his body. The other grasped a rope in time to save himself, Edward Beacon's thirty-five wars old.

Saw the whole thing, said he must and living with his wife at No. 15 East have turned twenty. One Hundred and Thirtleth street, was struck squarely up pendent bit of salvage. Last week he bought from Charles E. Gates an old slipped away he threw out his arms brick smokestack which stood in a humber mill at One Hundred and Thirty-seventh street and Canal avenue. He meant to wreck the chimney for the sake of the brick in it. He might faint Joseph E. Everard, of No. 27 East One Hundred and Thirty-second street, to help him in the job. They started yes-

Beacon and Turner began breaking. They could only tell that Beacon's be away the worn brick about the rim had been a man by the clothing. and lowering them in a basket to Ever- the station house a watch was found ball

They were hard at it when with a and crushed, but still ticked.

Young's benders and farmed out weakly. Madoney let one of Young's slow ones hit him in the back and ambled to first. He immediately stole second, and on Needlaam's wild throw, kept right on to third. McCarthy was only able to send a slow grounder to Tenney, who retired him unassisted. NO RUNS. Fourth Inning.

Capt. Tenney smashed the ball along the ground to centre for a base, and went to second on Dolan's retirement at first by McIntyre and Gessler. Brain poked a grounder to Lewis: who threw him out. Tensey reaching third on the play. Bates, who had previously hit a home run, struck out and the crowd welled long and loudly for the Brooklyn's big twirler. NO RUNS.

Lumley drove a bounder straight into Brain's hands and went to the bench. Casey was the second victim, as his fast grounder was grabbed by Young and Tenney also made quick work of Gessler, and the Brooklyns took the field. NO RUNS.
